

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Sandra P. Edwards, CFP®, CRPC®, CSNA

Sandra Edwards has been a Financial Advisor for over 20 years, joining Merrill Lynch in 2007 in the Atlanta Buckhead office. A graduate of the University of Tennessee, Knoxville with two degrees, a Bachelor of Arts - Major in Economics and a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration - Major in Finance, Sandra began her career in the financial services industry in June, 1988.

Sandra is a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ certificant, a designation awarded by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards Inc. and also a Chartered Retirement Planning CounselorSM (CRPC®) a designation awarded by the College for Financial Planning. The CFP® certification helps clients identify financial professionals who are committed to competent and ethical behavior. Certificate holders voluntarily submit to a rigorous process that includes demanding education, examination, experience and ethical requirements.

Additionally, Sandra is a Certified Special Needs Advisor (CSNA) in the Merrill Lynch Special Needs Financial Network. Merrill Lynch Financial Advisors in the network provide financial, retirement, estate, and investment planning strategies for families of children with disabilities.

Sandra currently serves on the Finance and Investment Advisory Committee to the Board of the Atlanta Alliance on Developmental Disabilities.

Sandra takes a personal approach with each client utilizing Merrill Lynch's Wealth Management Process that focuses on the financial goals and concerns important to each client. She helps clients determine their long-term financial goals and works with them to implement their wealth management strategies. Sandra takes the time to listen and understand each client's needs utilizing a win-win approach toward reaching their financial goals.

Sandra enjoys community involvement and spending time with her husband, Bob, and their two schnauzers, Emmy and Greta.
