

The many faces of Hank Stewart, which do you know?

The poet and sensual orator, the motivational speaker, the inspirational poet, the author, the activist, the founder and president of the Stewart Foundation (a youth leadership org.) and the founder of Five Men on a Stool.

He has been called a catalyst for action, a messenger of hope and has been recently referred to as "The Griot."

No doubt one of the nation's best poets, Mr. Stewart thinks of himself as a liaison between heaven and paper. He is a writer who has been sent by God to render the spoken words that will stimulate people to move to new emotional heights.

One of his primary goals is to motivate all people and make a positive impact in this world. He has recited his works to a wide range of audiences, but the responses are always the same, life changing for the listener.

Hank adds to his writing credits over seven publications of poetry, which inspire strong belief in God including, "The Answer" released in 1993, appropriately followed by, "Second Chance," "Be Still and Know," "Daydreaming About You," "Stay Focused," "Can You Hear Me," "3:57 A.M." and recently released, "The Morning After". He has also written and performed African American poetic rendition commercials for Fox 5 Atlanta which resulted in the winning of the 2007 Emmy, Promax and Gabby awards.
